Miss Latina Canada Pageant

What do Jennifer Lopez, Christina Aguilera and Salma Hayek have in common? They represent Latina women in a position of empowerment.

Miss Latina Canada represents visible minority women with the goal to bring Canadian and Latin cultures together, allowing Canadian Latina's to show their distinct edge and acceptance of worldwide differences in an international forum. This organization promotes physical, emotional and mental well-being, leadership, confidence, poise, self-esteem and all educational and entrepreneurial endeavours.

City Life Magazine is proud to sponsor Michelle Toscano a new contestant in the Miss Latina Canada. Michelle has dedicated her time to volunteering in her community and is a role model for other young women across the country. She has vested energy in bringing recognition to Canada and to the diverse cultures within. Her goal is to convey to all women in the Latin/Canadian community, that beauty lies far beneath the surface of the skin. "Beauty radiates from the heart and soul and through the positive ideas of our minding process" Michelle will be representing Woodbridge in the world pageant on Friday April 8th, 2005 at the Markham Theatre.
